Most improved curry house in Preston city September 2011

Environmental health bosses today heaped praise on the Water Lane restaurant.

Chef Liakath Ali, who has owned the nine-year-old restaurant for three years and employs a handful of full-time staff, said: "It's hard to get five stars"

"You have to be spot-on every time. If you're quiet and you're not doing anything, you can keep it clean and keep things in the fridge. It's easier to get five stars at a quiet place"

Low fat & organic options also available, please inform staff when ordering.
